Nico Shaw Núñez

Head of International Growth & Regulatory Services
CTPA

As the voice of the UK cosmetics industry, CTPA works internationally to support a sector that is truly global, and which provides cosmetics and personal care products to consumers worldwide.

CTPA acts on behalf of the industry to maximise opportunities for companies by addressing technical barriers to trade, influencing regulatory developments, and communicating on future changes to the way cosmetics are regulated around the world providing members with detailed advice and assistance.

This 2022 report provides an overview of the UK's trade with countries around the world to help illustrate the key markets for UK exporters and to inform negotiations on Free Trade Agreements where CTPA provides valuable insight to the Government's discussions with overseas authorities.

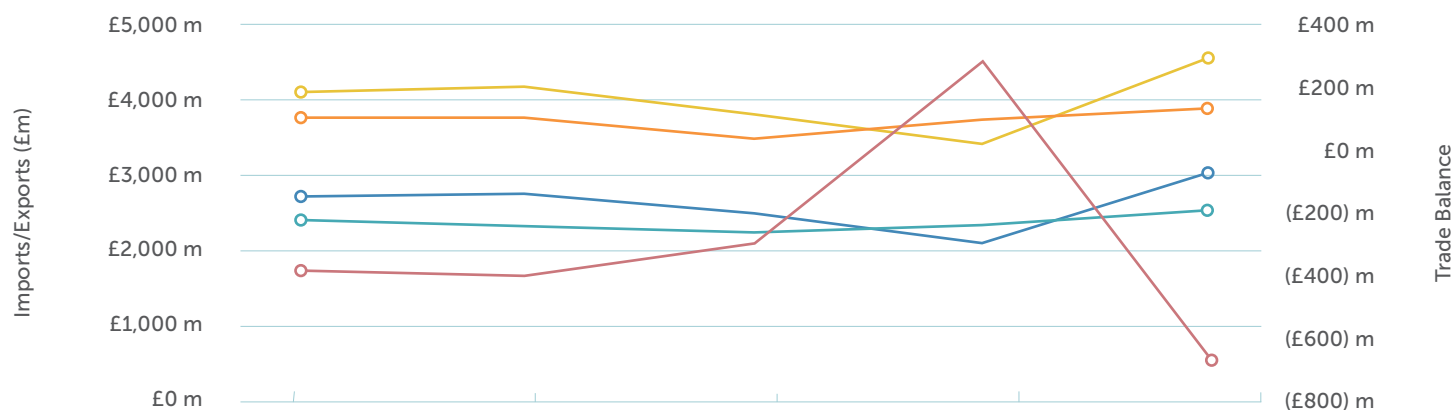

Balance of Trade 2022

Balance of Trade (BoT)	=	Exports	-	Imports
------------------------	---	---------	---	---------

Represents the difference between the value of exports against the imports for the UK cosmetics industry. A positive trade balance is generally regarded as a favourable indicator.
